In a peaceful Istrian setting, not far from Brtonigla, there is an authentic stone house that exudes tradition and Istrian charm. The house spans three levels with a total area of approximately 110 m². The roof has already been renovated, as well as the inter-floor structures, which is a significant advantage for future renovations.

Connections for electricity and water are provided. The property offers excellent potential for renovation into an authentic Istrian holiday home or a cozy residence in a tranquil environment.
